

Privacy Statement

The purpose of the Privacy Statement:

Fuzi is committed to protecting your privacy and personal data. Fuzi processes your personal data in accordance with the Finnish Personal Data Act (523/1999) and other applicable personal data legislation.

This Privacy statement related to the internet service of Fuzi Classic Elevators Private Limited (“Privacy Statement”) provides you with general information on the processing of your personal data by Fuzi Classic Elevators Private Limited and its employees, partners, subsidiaries and affiliates (“Fuzi”) related to this web site and the internet service of Fuzi Classic Elevators Private Limited on (the “Site”). Fuzi will process your personal data collected through the Site in accordance with this Privacy Statement and applicable laws. Please read this Privacy Statement carefully prior to accessing the Site. If you do not agree with this Privacy Statement, we expect you to leave the Site.

Personal data collected through the Site:

Generally, you can visit the Site without entering any personal data. The Site is technically divided into separate sections some of which may require us to collect more personal data of you while some may be used without processing any personal data.

When visiting the Site, certain technical and other information is automatically sent by your computer to us (i.e. IP address, the type of your browser and the source of your visit). We also collect information about your website usage information by using cookies. Please see the Cookies section of this Privacy Statement for further information.

On certain parts of the Site, you may be asked to provide personal data and/or sign up for the service to access a service that you have requested. Once you register on the Site or have otherwise been assigned a specific identification code to access your accounts, we may request that you provide certain information.

The purpose of processing of Personal Data:

The purpose of Fuzi processing of personal data is to:-

- Ensure an efficient and secure use of the Site.
- Develop the Site for a better quality and broader scope of services.
- Provide customized services and content recognizing your specific needs and interests.
- Improve our services to you.
- Contact you.
- Conduct research and collect statistics (e.g. what sections of our Site the users visit and how much time they spend on the Site).

Fuzi strives to produce cost efficient services without you having to register separately to each of the different services provided on the Site.

Cookies:

From time-to-time Fuzi may place information, commonly known as “cookies”, on your computer to allow us to identify you, provided that you have consented to the placing of cookies on your computer or device for example by opt-in function or by way of changing the browser settings. Cookies give Fuzi information on how and when you have used the Site and help Fuzi to improve the Site for a better service. Cookies are today commonly used on many web sites. If you do not wish to receive cookies, you may set your web browser to disable them. Kindly note, that disabling cookies may prevent you from using certain services on the Site.

Remarketing:

The Site may use Google AdWords Remarketing to display advertisements based on your recent visit on the Site (“Remarketing”). Remarketing at the Site is used for building awareness of Fuzi solutions and services. The information regarding the visits is collected by placing a third-party cookie on your computer. You may opt-out from Remarketing through the Network Advertising Initiative website, by modifying the remarketing ad settings on the Google Ad Settings site or by disabling cookies.

Website Analytics:

Fuzi uses website analytics, such as Adobe Analytics and Google Analytics, to gather anonymous statistics about the users of the Site with the aim to improve the contents of the Site. You may use the opt-out function of Fuzi website analytics program to indicate that you do not want Fuzi to track your visits to its websites. You need to repeat this action when you use different computers and/or browsers to visit Fuzi website.

Social Media Plugins:

These plugins, and any other links or connections to other websites on the Site, may be owned and controlled by third parties. Therefore, Fuzi has no control over such third-party websites, is not responsible for any material published there and assumes no liability for any matters arising out of use of such sites.

Usage of social media plugins may result in sending identifiable information to the respective social media platforms. Opening a social media plugin may allow the third-party website to set cookies on the user’s computer, permitting its operators to track the usage of the Site, provided that the user has subscribed to the relevant social media platform. This can be prevented by disabling the acceptance and storage of cookies in the browser settings. The social media plugins on the Site are subject to the privacy terms and other terms and conditions of the relevant social media sites. You may use the opt-out function below to indicate that you do not want to use the social media plugins on the Site.

Transfers of Personal Data:

Fuzi will not transfer any personal data outside the Fuzi Classic Elevators Private Limited or its any partners, affiliates, subsidiaries and subcontractors. Due to the technical and practical requirements some of the personal data may be processed by subcontractors located outside the European Union or European Economic Area or at the subcontractors’ servers outside the European Union or European Economic Area. However, such subcontractors have agreed to the data processing standards of Fuzi.

Fuzi may provide aggregate statistics about its customers, sales, traffic patterns, and other related Site information to reputable third parties, but these statistics will include no personal data.

Contacting Fuzi:

You may at any time contact Fuzi to check that the personal data related to you is accurate. Fuzi will at your request rectify or erase any incomplete, inaccurate or outdated personal data.

Should the processing of your personal data be based on your consent, you may at any time revoke your consent by contacting Fuzi. As processing of your personal data is necessary for us to be able to provide you with our services and products, revoking your consent may lead to a situation where we cannot provide you with some or all our services and products.

For more information, please contact Fuzi via the contact form at our website www.fuzielevators.com.

Updates to the Privacy Statement:

As Fuzi seeks to develop the Site continuously, Fuzi reserves the right to amend this Privacy Statement. Fuzi hopes that you review this Privacy Statement from time to time for any amendments. Possible additional questions and comments about the activities of Fuzi as a data controller shall be directed to Fuzi via the contact form at our website www.fuzielevators.com.

Customer Loyalty Survey:

Fuzi may contact its customers for conducting customer loyalty surveys. To improve its services Fuzi would like to receive the survey responses with the customer contact person's name. The processing of your name and any other personal data in connection with customer loyalty survey is based on your consent. All answers and data collected in connection with the survey will be classified confidential and adequate security measures are employed when handling and transferring the data. Fuzi will process the collected data in accordance with all applicable laws. Fuzi will not transfer any personal data outside the Fuzi Classic Elevators Private Limited or its any partners, affiliates, subsidiaries and subcontractors. Due to the technical and practical requirements of the processing, some of the personal data may be located at the servers of subcontractors or processed by subcontractors, which have agreed to the data processing standards of Fuzi. Customers may at any time contact Fuzi to check that the personal data related to them is accurate. Fuzi will at request rectify or erase any incomplete, inaccurate or outdated personal data. For more information, please contact Fuzi via the contact form at our website www.fuzielevatos.com
